On the occasion of World Physiotherapy Day on 8th September 2024, Indutai Tilak College of Physiotherapy and Jayantrao Tilak College of Physiotherapy had jointly organized a free Physiotherapy Health Camp at two places in Pune city viz. Swargate Bus Depot and Katraj Bus Depot.

The camps were organized keeping in mind the needs and benefits of Physiotherapy for the bus drivers, conductors and other workers working in the bus depots. The most common complaints reported by this population were back pain, neck pain, shoulder pain and pain in the lower limbs.

After checking for vital parameters, patients were required to fill a questionnaire regarding their musculoskeletal complaints. After that they were assessed and treated regarding their chief complaints. Patients were educated regarding ergonomics and how they can benefit from it in their working environment. A total of 30 students were part of the camp along with faculties. Total 159 patients were benefitted from this camp.
