

SEMESTER – I

Paper - 1

Course Name :- Law of Contract – I

Course Code – LW 102

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
4			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Basic Principles of agreement.

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- The objective of this paper is to study in detail the evolution of contract legislation along with the role of equity courts played in the progression of Contract law.
- To make students familiar with various principles of contract, impart information enunciated in the Indian Contract Act.
- To provide complete knowledge to the students about formation, capacity and enforcement of agreements and contracts.
- To expose students to the role of contract in the era of globalization and privatization to teach the students how to draft different legal contracts.

Course Outcomes

Students completing this course of Law of Contract will be able to:

- Define, distinguish and apply the basic concepts and terminology of the law of contract;
- Define and distinguish amongst the various processes involved in contract formation;
- Identify the relevant legal issues that arise on a given set of facts in the area of contract law;
- Select and apply a range of approaches to written communication, and apply the critical thinking required to bring about creative solutions to complex legal problems in the area of contract law;
- Formulate oral and written arguments in response to a given set of facts;

Paper - 2

Course Name :- Family Law – I

Course Code –LW 101

Credits : 4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
4			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Family law pertains to the formation and dissolution of domestic relations, including the law of marriage, separation dissolution, maintenance, custody and support of children. The students are expected to have a basic knowledge of the concept of family and kinship.

Course Objectives: The Course objectives are as follows.

1. The main objective of this study is to get the student acquainted about the sources of law which they are dealing with in their day to day life.
2. To examine the objectives and functions of the family courts in the context of Indian constitution.
3. To find out the merits and demerits of the existing structures and functions of family courts in India.
4. To examine the reasons and challenges of the pending cases in the family courts.
5. To find out the major barriers to the effective functioning of the family courts and to formulate necessary suggestions for the effective functioning of family courts.

Course Outcomes: The completion of this course will enable the students to learn the following:

1. Students studying family law learn about the concepts like marriage, divorce, parental custody, domestic abuse and children's rights.

2. Family law examines historical and social contexts that have influenced the modern definition and regulation of families. The students will be able to understand the same.
3. Students will have an understanding of various personal laws in relation to family.
4. Students will be able to understand the ways in which family court operates for the speedy settlement of family disputes.

Paper - 3

Course Name :- Law of Crimes

Course Code –LW 103

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Crime is a phenomenon which occurs almost everyday in each and every part of the world. Thus students should have a fair idea about the concept of crime in general.

Course Objective: The objectives of this course are as follows

- To introduce to the students the basic principles of criminal Law.
- To make the students understand the concept of private defence and situations when offences are not considered as crime.
- To make the students socially aware by acquainting them to the various types of offences.

Course Outcomes: - Students completing the study of Law of crimes will be able to:

1. Understand and describe areas of criminal justice, law and society through an analysis of the subject.
2. Summarize the process of judicial review and identify criteria used by courts to evaluate the constitutionality of criminal law of India.
3. The young law students are the future lawyers and they must have an acquaintance with such knowledge to make the criminal justice system serve the goals of social defense as well as social justice.
4. Problem-solving of complex issues in the criminal justice system and society related to policies, law enforcement, vulnerability, and marginalization

Paper - 4

Course Name :- Constitutional Law - I Course Code – LW 104 Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Pre requisite:

- Making of Indian Constitution of Pre-Independence to Post Independence Period.

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- The course is designed with an objective that it will highlight the concept of right, freedoms with reasonable restrictions and duties.
- Some other objectives are to understand the distinction between PartIII and PartIV of the Indian Constitution.

Course Outcomes:On completion of this course the students will be able to achieve the following:

- To create and set up a basic philosophical tenets of Indian Constitutional Law.
- To instill not just a bare understanding but a perspective on constitutional developments in the minds of students about the Indian Constitutional Law.
- To understand the system of Government and the fundamental principles governing its organization.
- As the course outcome, it will enable the students to understand the detailed analysis of fundamental freedoms guaranteed under the Indian Constitution.

Paper – 5 (Elective Subject)

Course Name :- Women and Law Course Code – LW 105

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: A woman is seen as sacred and worshipped as the embodiment of all virtues, but on the other hand, the norms created by the male dominated culture discriminates against her and victimise the women. Thus there is a need to study the current subject. Students seeking to study this course should know understand the importance of Equality of Status available to every citizen of India.

Course Objectives: The course draws attention to the poor status of women and the violence inflicted on them. It is important to critically research the legal restrictions on their ability and legal rights and security given in the Constitution and in different laws. This is the precise reason to study the various laws pertaining to the women. It is sad but true that even if possible, the man made rule was unable to rectify the historical injustice done to women. This is the precise reason for researching the different laws relating to women. The Objective of this course are as follows

- To give a brief overview of the various constitutional provisions relating to women.
- To educate students about the various forms of violence inflicted against women.
- To make the students aware of various legislation relating to women.
- To sensitize students about the need for Gender justice.
- To make the students aware of the need of Uniform Civil Code.

Course Outcomes: - Students completing this course of Women and Law will be able to:

1. Apply a systematic approach to eliminate on the ideas in the institutions which marginalize, subordinate and accord secondary citizenship to women and underestimate or makes the women's contribution invisible.
2. Organizes awareness, skill training and capacity building programmes to different classes of women and men.
3. Provides consultancy instincts in students to identify and discuss issues related to women and child development and promote ideas among students to influence entrepreneurial spirit among the girls, rural and urban grass root women and promote micro entrepreneurs whenever possible.
4. Develops a portal of potential employment opportunities in local areas.
5. The course will study and analyze, what are the legal provisions enacted to ameliorate these situations with special emphasis on Indian Municipal Laws and what is the scope and shortcomings in the existing legal regime in this regard?

Paper – 6 (Elective Subject)

Course Name :- Criminology and Penology Course Code – LW 106 Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
4			60		40	100

Course Prerequisites: Criminology is an interdisciplinary academic field devoted to the scientific study of crime. Penology is the scientific study of the methods and consequences of the punishment of crime. Students are expected to know social behaviour, what are the various types of offences and also about the institution of Police.

Course Objectives: Criminology is the interdisciplinary study of crime as both an individual and social phenomenon, with research on the origins and forms of crime, its causes and consequences, and social and governmental reactions to it. The science of criminology therefore, aims at taking up case for case study of different crimes and suggests measures so as to infuse the feelings of mutual confidence, respect and co-operation among the offenders. The objectives of this course are as follows

- Students will be made able to recognize the causes and consequences of crime at the micro and macro levels and match these with prominent criminological perspectives.
- To make the students aware of the interrelated institutions and processes of the criminal justice system.
- To make the students able to apply theories of crime and criminal justice and to explain actual and hypothetical scenarios, behaviours, and trends.
- To help the students recognize and explain macro-social inequities in crime and criminal justice processes by race, social class, gender, region and age.

Course Outcomes: Students who have completed this course will be able to

1. Analyse and define the concept of crime and antisocial behaviour in the society and the difference between crime and morality as the concept of crime changes from society to society.
2. Analyse the various views given by philosophers on criminology.

3. Evaluate the reasons behind the crime and significance of Penology in the present society and theories of the punishments and its application in the criminal justice system.
4. Determine and analyse the role and function of the Police in the administration of criminal justice system as they plays important role in maintaining law and order.
5. Analyse and evaluate the role of prison and prison officers in execution of the punishment given by the court.

Paper – 7 (Elective Subject)

Course Name :- RTI and PIL

Course Code – LW 107

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisites: Every democracy like India requires an informed citizenry, and transparency of information, which are vital to its functioning and also to curb corruption and to hold Governments and their instrumentalities accountable to the governed. The students seeking to study this subject must be aware of the various Constitutional Fundamental Rights available to a citizen of India.

Course Objectives: The basic objective of the Right to Information Act is to empower the citizens, promote transparency and accountability in the working of the Public Authorities, curb corruption, and make our democracy work for the people in real sense.

- To explain to the students the origin of the Right to Information movement.
- To explain the Objectives of the Right to Information Act 2005.
- To highlight the features of the Right to Information Act, 2005 to the students.
- To brief the students the Process to file the application for information.
- To discuss the Success stories of the Right to Information with the students.
- To discuss with the students other related Laws.

Course Outcomes: As the outcome of the course the students will be able to understand the following

1. Throughout the world, the right to information is seen by many as the key to strengthening participatory democracy and ensuring more people centered development. It is important for the students to understand the significance of right to information in the changing scenario.

2. In India , the Government enacted RTI Act in 2005 allowing transparency and autonomy and access to accountability in Public Authority.

3. At the end of the study, students have understood and analyzed the important definitions, Public Authorities and their obligations, information which is exempted from disclosure, Constitution of information commissions and their powers and penalties..

Paper - 8

Course Name :- Soft Skills

Course Code –LW 108

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme				No of Teaching Hours
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total	30 hours
					50	50

Course Pre-requisites: - The phrase ‘soft skills’ incorporates a wide variety of personality traits, communication and people skills, social attitudes and emotional intelligence. These qualities (also known as ‘core skills’) are increasingly important for success in the workplace not only for those in leadership positions but to every working professional. The student should have a fair idea of what is communication, what are its uses, and they should also be well versed with the language used as a mode of communication.

Course Learning Objectives:. Everyone can benefit from some focused training and development to help them realise their full potential. In an increasing competitive world soft skills provide a productive, collaborative and healthy work environment. This course intends to achieve the following objectives.

- To encourage the all round development of students by focusing on soft skills.
- To make the law students aware of the importance, the role and the content of soft skills through instruction, knowledge acquisition, demonstration and practice.
- To develop and nurture the soft skills of the students through individual and group activities.
- To enlighten the students to have a right attitude and behaviour while dealing professionally .
- To educate students about unproductive thinking, self-defeating emotional impulses, and self-defeating behaviors.

- To give each student a realistic perspective of work and work expectations, to help formulate problem solving skills.
- To guide students in making appropriate and responsible decisions, to create a desire to fulfill individual goals,

Course Outcome:

- This subject will help the students to communicate effectively both in their personal as well as professional life.
- On completion of the course, the students will be able to effectively communicate through verbal/oral communication and improve the listening skills.
- This course will help the students to actively participate in group discussions, meetings , interviews, prepare and deliver presentations .
- The study of this course would help the students to function effectively in multi-disciplinary and heterogeneous teams through the knowledge of team work, inter personal relationships, conflict management and leadership quality.
- This training is certainly getting the students to assist them as to how to survive in the corporate world.

SEMESTER – II

Paper - 9

Course Name :- Law of Contract – II Course Code – LW 202 Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Pre requisite:

General Principles of contract

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- The course is designed with an aim to study overview of Specific contracts, Indian Partnership Act, Sales of Goods Act and Negotiable Instruments Act.
- Some other objectives of this course is that to understand the distinction between Guarantee and Warranty and other specific contracts.

Course Outcomes: - Students completing the course of Law of Contract-II will be able to perform the following :

- In the society wherein all major ventures are getting corporatized, a law student should acquaint himself with the knowledge of special contracts apart from equipping himself with general principles of contract.
- Set out a range of subject specific, cognitive and transferable skills within the purview of Sales of Goods Act, Indian Partnership Act.
- This course equips the students to better appreciate the legal services required in a corporate office so that he can enhance his relevance as a lawyer in society.

Paper - 10

Course Name :- Family Law – II

Course Code – LW 201

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
4			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Family law is primarily concerned with the rules of the formation of the family and of the rights and obligations arising out of relationships in the family. Students taking up this course should have a brief idea of the concept of family, succession, kinship and the sources of various personal laws applicable in India.

Course Objectives:

- To give the student concepts of property relations in the familial relationship.
- To understand the legal incidence of joint family and the laws of succession – testamentary and intestate – according to the personal laws of Hindus and Muslims.
- To give an in depth knowledge to the students to develop visions and perceptions about family and their relations within the family.
- To promote thinking on Uniform Civil Code and equality among sexes in property relations within the family.
- To make the students understand and analyse the recent trends, emerging in the field of personal laws.

Course Outcomes: On completion of this course the student will be able to

- Students will learn about more about the concepts like Succession and Inheritance.
- Student will be able to examine Family law and compare personal laws on a particular matter.
- Students will gain skills of thinking, analysis, written and verbal presentation of ideas of argument. Students will be able to analyse the various laws on succession.

Paper – 11

Course Name :- Labour Laws

Course Code – LW 18-204

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
4			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: To have an effective human resource practice, the knowledge of Labour Legislation is an indispensable part. Especially in the Indian scenario, the Labour welfare and security is paramount in industrial relations solutions. To seek knowledge in this field of law the students should have a basic idea of various industries operating in the country and what classes of people would be termed as labour.

Course Objectives: In this course, the students are to be acquainted with the Industrial relations, various aspects of management of labour relation and dispute settlement bodies and techniques. The aim of this course is to assist students to develop an understanding of Indian labour law. Students will learn the laws relating to Industrial Relations, Social Security and Working conditions and also learn the enquiry procedural and industrial discipline. The course is not only designed to equip students to practice labour law, but also aims at providing a good working knowledge of the history, theory and practice that govern labour relations. Students are given an advanced understanding of the underlying legal principles, rules and institutions which regulate Indian work relationships

Course Outcomes:

By the end of this course, students should be able to understand

1. The nature and scope of labor laws
2. The rationale of labor laws in organizations.
3. To identify all aspects of Labour Law practiced in India
4. To exhibit a comprehensive theoretical and practical understanding of Labour Law
5. To demonstrate an intellectual capacity for solving industrial disputes.

Paper - 12

Course Name :- Constitutional Law – II Course Code – LW 203 Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Pre requisite:

Concept of Fundamental freedoms, duties and Directive Principles of state policy.

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- The course is designed with an objective that the students will acquire knowledge of the concept of state, judiciary and interrelation with union and states.
- Some other objectives are to study the Judicial review

Course Outcomes: At the end of the course, this will enable the students to learn the following:

- To understand the form of Government- Parliamentary and Presidential.
- To understand the Parliamentary democracy and its structure
- To understand the contemporary status of centre-state relations.
- To generate understanding of methods of amendment in the constitution of India.s
- To apply principle of Judicial review through Precedents.

Paper – 13 (Core-Elective Subject)

Course Name :- Media and Law

Course Code – LW 206

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Media law is a course that seeks a co-relationship of the constitutional objective of free expression and speech and also the restrictions and rights governing the fourth estate. Media Law is a specialisation of law that deals with the law of the press. The students should be aware of the various modes of media available in the country.

Course Objectives: Media and Law both are evolving sectors and have a huge demand for skilled professionals. Through the course of media law, an aspirant becomes aware of the legal framework surrounding the media industry

- To discuss with students media laws in India and the world.
- To explain to the students the Right of Freedom of Speech and reasonable restrictions applicable.
- To make the students aware of the various media regulations in India.
- To make the students understand the nature of ethics and morality in journalism.

Course Outcomes: - Students graduating with Law and Media will be able to:

- 1] To promote for the benefit of the public compliance with ethical standards of conduct and with the law by journalists, broadcasters and all others engaged in or responsible for the media.
- 2] To advance the education and training of the public and in particular members of charitable and non-charitable voluntary organisations in the India and elsewhere in all forms of communication media and in particular the effective utilisation thereof.
- 3] This type of law emphasis on fields like freedom of speech, defamation, privacy, censorship, contempt and freedom of information.

Paper – 14 (Core-Elective Subject)

Course Name :- Election Law

Course Code – LW 207

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Elections form the bedrock of the largest democracy in the world - India. The methodology of election is through universal adult suffrage, whereby every citizen of India over 18 years of age is an eligible voter in the eyes of the Constitution. The students should be aware of the various elections carried out in the Country for electing different authorities in the Government..

Course Objectives: Elections provide a way to the people to assert their voice, opinion and choose the person whose priorities and ideas match with them the most. The objective of this course are

- To explain to students the importance of Elections.
- To let the students know about the qualifications and disqualifications of Candidates.
- To brief them about the corrupt practices involved in Elections.
- To explain the function of the Election Commission.
- To make the students aware as to how Electoral rolls are prepared and revised.
- To explain the students about the Electoral offences.

Course Outcomes: -Students graduating with Election Law will be able to:

- Understand and describe importance of election in democratic country.
- Analyze lacuna within among the election law and available remedies.
- To suggest reformation in present election law and procedure.

Paper – 15

Course Name :- Conference

Course Code – LW 208

Credits :1

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme				No of Teaching Hours
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total	15
					25	25	Hours

Course Pre-requisite:

- How to maintain decorum while being part of the Legal conference

Course Objective:

- To Improve the presentation and communication skills of the student
- It enables the students to get acquainted with various personalities of that particular field
- To update the students with the latest research in legal field before they are even published in journals, then a conference is the place to be.
- The course provides opportunities to the student in receiving feedback on an early version of their latest work

Course Outcomes: -

- When Students complete the program, students should be able to improve the presentation and communication skills
- Student will be able to understand very latest research in legal field before they are even published in journals, then a conference is the place to be.

Paper –16

Course Name :-The Legal Battles of Bal Gangadhar Tilak

Course Code –LW 209

Credits :1

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme				No of Teaching hours
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total	15 Hours
					25	25

Course Pre-requisite : Patriotism and Sedition laws and provisions of IPC

Course Objective : Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak was called the “ Maker of Modern India” by Mahatma Gandhi . Such was his dedication towards Social Justice in British Ruled india . As his life and the book will be an inspiration to the young lawyers in India .To include this book in the Law course is to give brief idea about the Legal Battles of Lokmanya Tilak .

Following are the objective of including this book in the syllabus

- To make the readers know several aspects of the trials which reflected the judicial acumen of Lokamanya Tilak .His answers to queries made by the court demonstrate his clarity of mind and thought in relation to legal proceedings that Lokmanya Tilak faced .
- To know that, that during his political life of 40 years he was in prison for more than 7 years and fought various legal battles for around 36 years ..
- To understand that ,he was prosecuted 5 times for which he complained against British Journalist Chirrol case in England
- To understand the inception of Sedition Laws under Sec 124 (A) of IPC
- To know that Lokamanya Tilak fought legally for various workers in freedom movement

Course Outcomes: -

- On careful reading of the Book the students will be able understand the Legal Battles of great leader Lokmanya Bal Ganadhar Tilak . One of the strongest advocates of Swaraj (Self Rule) and the prime architects of modern India. Termed as the 'Father of Indian Unrest' by the British Government, he was bequeathed upon with the title of 'Lokmanya' -- he who is revered by the people, by his followers.
- This course will help the students to understand theSedition laws were enacted in 17th century in England, when lawmakers believed that only good opinions of the government should survive, as bad opinions were detrimental to the government and monarchy. This sentiment (and law) was borrowed and inserted into the IPC in 1870, in order to prosecute
- Bal Gangadhar Tilak under the law of sedition for the first time in Indian history in 1897. This book will be a source of motivation to the Law students to contribute towards our country.

- Inspired by reading about such an influential personality the young students will be able to give a proper direction to their life.
- The students would be influenced to revolt against Legal injustice.

Semester III

Paper-17

Course Name :- Property Laws including Transfer of property Act, 1882 and Easement Act, 1882

Course Code – LW - 18-301

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Basic Knowledge of Coparcenary and Classification of Property under hindu joint family as Property law deals with transfer by living person especially along with fundamentals of equity to Study Property related issues & laws

Outcome related course learning objectives:

The main object is to regulate the transmission of property between living persons. To amend or regulate the law relating to transfer of property by the acts of the parties. It completes the Code of Contract since it is an enacted law for transfers that take place in furtherance of a contract. To provide a law parallel to the existing laws of testamentary and intestate transfers. To apply the principles of Justice, Equity and Good Conscience if a particular case is not governed by any provision of law.

Course Outcomes: Students who has taken admission for this course will be able to

1. Analyse and define the concept and nature of transfer of immovable property, and Special transfers and General rules relating to it.
2. Analyse the rule relating to transfer of property within two living persons and the consequences of it
3. Evaluate the rules relating to general transfer of immovable property

4. Determine and analyse the rules of Sale of Immovable Property and rights and liabilities of Transferor and Transferee
5. Analyse and evaluate the rules governing Mortgages, Leases, Exchanges, Gift and Actionable Claims rights and liabilities of transferor and transferee
6. Analyse and evaluate the rules relating concept of easement and kinds of easement and rights and liabilities of transferor and transferee.

Paper – 18

Course Name :- Legal Language

Course Code – LW 302

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Pr-requisite:

Student should be aware of the Glanville Williams Learning the Law .

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- To enable students to grasp the relation between literature and law
- To have a basic knowledge of grammar and legal vocabulary, phrases, maxims and pleadings and to develop legal writing skills
- To have a clear understanding of the types of communication and the various aspects of communication

Course Outcomes:

Students graduating with Legal Language will be able to:

- Understand and describe importance of Legal Language.
- Develop the Composition skills.
- To provide the students with adequate experience to apply to legal rules.
- To equip the students with sufficient knowledge of countries legal systems.

Paper – 19

Course Name :- Human Rights and International Law

Course Code – LW 303

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Pre requisite :

Knowledge of the fundamentals of International Law and Human Rights

Outcome related course learning objectives:

The objective of this paper is to acquaint the students with the basics of Human Rights and International Law. The aim of the course is to teach students about the basic features of international law and the international legal order and the meaning of international law for legal practice. This course provides student with a sufficient basis to participate in more specialized courses in international law, such as Basics of International Humanitarian Law to encourage research studies concerning the relationship between Human Rights and Duties Education and International Humanitarian Law

Course Outcomes:

- On successful completion of the course students will be able to:
- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the international human rights framework, its origins and justifying theories;
- Demonstrate capacity to assess how specific human rights may be asserted, enforced or violated
- Critically evaluate the relationship between international and domestic law on human rights; Demonstrate understanding of the role of lawyers in human rights protection and capacity to

Paper – 20

Course Name :- Arbitration, Conciliation and Alternative Disputes Resolution Systems

Course Code – LW 304

Credits : 4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Dispute resolution mechanism in worldwide

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- Alternative Dispute Resolution has become the primary means by which cases are resolved now days, especially commercial, business disputes. It has emerged as the preferred method for resolving civil cases, with litigation as a last resort. Alternative Dispute Resolution provides an overview of the statutory, procedural, and case law underlining these processes and their interplay with litigation. A significant theme is the evolving role of professional ethics for attorneys operating in non-adversarial settings.
- The law of ADR also provides an introduction to negotiation and mediation theory.

Course Outcomes:- Students graduating with ‘Arbitration, Conciliation and Alternative Disputes Resolution Systems’ will be able to:

- Familiarize with the modalities and techniques of resolution of conflict which is a necessary component in the endeavors of developing expertise in juridical exercise.
- To understand and analyze the traditional justice delivery system through adjudication by along with an alternative mode of dispute resolution in the common law countries.
- To approach the processes of arbitration, conciliation and mediation in areas where the traditional judicial system had its sway in the past and in the new areas of conflicts that demand resolution by alternative methods. The students will gain the negotiation and mediation skills .

Paper – 21

Course Name :- Comparative Laws

Course Code – LW 305

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite:

Students should be acquainted with legal philosophy of various jurist

Outcome related course learning objectives:

Acquainting the students with the comparative method in the study of law and exploring the possibilities of employing that method for the better understanding and reform of our legal system. The course seeks to achieve these goals in three ways. Firstly, it tries to comprehend an understanding of the conceptions, scope and utility of comparative law. Secondly, it gives a bird's eye view of different legal systems in the present day world. Finally, it compares the two most dominant and widespread legal systems, i.e the common law and the civil law systems.

Course Outcomes:

Students graduating with comparative law will be able to:

Acquainting the students with the comparative method in the study of Comparative Law

Exploring the possibilities of employing that method for the better understanding and reform of our legal system.

The conception of legal rule in the two legal systems will be specially addressed and examined the civil law system differentiates between public and private contracts and torts.

Paper – 22 (Elective)

Course Name :- Cyber Law

Course Code – LW 306

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite:

To know the intricacies of using information technology can do well in this program. students are supposed to have the zeal to learn new details of the course as well as have good evaluative, logical and analytical skills enabling them to understand the laws regulations to be followed in the cyberspace.

Outcome related course learning objectives:

To introduce the cyber world and cyber law in general To explain about the various facets of cyber crimes To enhance the understanding of problems arising out of online transactions and provoke them to find solutions To clarify the Intellectual Property issues in the cyber space and the growth and development of the law in this regard.

Course Outcomes:

Cyber Law deals with all the aspects of Cyber law as per Indian/IT act 2008.It also covers overview of Intellectual l Property Right and Trademark Related laws with respect to Cyber Space.

With the knowledge of Cyber Law students are able to demonstrate a critical understanding of the Cyber law with respect to Indian IT/Act 2008.

It also covers cyber security to curb the incidences of cyber crime.

Paper – 23

Course Name :- Trust and Equity

Course Code – LW 307

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite:

Student should be acquainted with the laws relating to specific contract and property laws as these laws are based on the principles of law

Outcome related course learning objectives:

The objective of the course is to provide students with an overall understanding of the law of equity with special emphasis on fiduciary obligations, trusts, equitable assignment of property and equitable remedies. The course will consider the history of equity, basic principles which dominate its jurisprudence and the relevance of equity today; the nature of fiduciary obligations, recognised categories of fiduciaries and the extension of these categories in recent times, breach of fiduciary obligations, defences and remedies for the breach of fiduciary obligations; the requirements for express trusts, the liability of a third party to a breach of trust or fiduciary duty, and the remedies for breach of trust and fiduciary duty, including tracing. The course then shifts its focus to equity more generally by considering the equitable rules for assignment of property and the remedies of specific performance and injunctions.

Course Outcomes: -Students graduating with Trust and Equity will be able to:

- To facilitate and promote awareness among the people to donate various organs of human body. Within preview of law.

- To ensure people's involvement in developing a society wherein peace, justice and equality prevail.
- To promote self employment and other ventures for the benefits of weaker sections.

Paper – 24

Course Name :-Field Visit Course Code: LW 308 Credits: 2

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
				50		50

Course Pre-requisite:

Clarity of actual problems of society related to law.

Course Objective:

- To assess their knowledge of students on various legal awareness programmes before and after Field trip.
- To find the outcome of experienced based learning by comparing the knowledge gained out of Field visit in the evaluation method of multiple choice questions with assignment method of evaluation in the previous year.
- To get their feedback and opinion related to jail visits, etc at the end of entire field trips.

Course Outcome:

Experiential learning, or active learning, interactive learning, or “learning by doing” has resulted in positive outcomes. Most experts agree that when students take an active role in the learning process the student's learning is optimized. It will measure their knowledge gained out of this learning experience and to know their opinion and feedback of field trip.

Semester IV

Paper – 25

Course Name :- Jurisprudence

Course Code – LW 401

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Basics of Legal Method

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- To equip the student with knowledge of law, practical application of law, analytical thinking and logical reasoning.
- To help the students to answer the fundamental questions about law.
- To develop the comparative understating of the different legal systems and the legal system in India.

Course outcomes: On successful completion of this course you will be able to:

- Demonstrate an advanced and integrated understanding of the political, social, historical, philosophical, and economic context of law.
- Engage in identification, articulation and critical evaluation of legal theory and the implications for policy.
- Critically analyze and research complex problems relating to law and legal theory and make reasoned and appropriate choices amongst alternatives.

Paper – 26

Course Name: Law of Tort including Motor Vehicle Accident & Consumer Protection Laws

Course Code – LW 402

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Outcome related course learning objectives:

To study in details the concept of civil wrong differentiating from contractual liability .To study the theory and philosophy of the evolution of torts in Common Law system.To examine the differing requirements which lead to civil liability for torts against persons and personal relations Assault and Battery, False Imprisonment, Defamation, Malicious Prosecution, interference with immoveable property, Trespass to Land, Dispossession, Nuisance, interference with goods Trespass to Goods, Conversion, Detention, torts involving deception of others Deceit, Malicious Falsehood, Passing Off, torts affecting reputation of goods and property, Slander of Goods, Slander of Title, Maintenance and Champerty, negligence, product and services liability in the context of Consumer Protection Act .To analyze the important judgments laying down the foundations for the principles and doctrines developed under Law of Torts.To make the students well acquainted with this branch of law governing actions for damages for injuries to certain kinds of rights, like the right to personal security, property and reputation

Course Outcomes: -Students graduating with Law of Torts incl. M.V. Act and consumer Protection Law will be able to:

1. To study the principles of Tortuous liability, The defenses available in an action for torts, the capacity of parties to sue and be sued and matters connection there with.

2. To study and evaluate the specific torts against the individual and property. With rapid industrialization, inadequacy of the law to protect the individual is exposed.
3. The students should reflect on the alternative forms, and also the remedies provided under the Consumer Protection Act, 1986.

Paper – 27

Course Name :- Interpretation of Statutes Course Code – LW 403 Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite:

Fundamentals of Legal Method and fundamentals to interpret the Laws

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- To ascertain true meaning by going beyond the words used in the statute.
- To understand the background of judicial activism of the judiciary and to have a broad perspective of the legislation.
- To consider the intention of the legislature and principles of natural justice to find the true source of law.

Course Outcomes:-Students graduating with ‘Interpretation of Statute & Principles of Legislation’ will be able to:

- Know what are the techniques adopted by courts in construing statutes? And the importance of the law making process in the present context
- What are the matters to be reckoned with by the legislature while enacting laws?
- Understand and analyze the judicial interpretation, construction of words, phrases and expressions.

Paper – 28

Course Name :- Principles of Taxation Law Course Code – LW 404 Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite:

Basic idea of the tax

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- To understand the Meaning and the various Legislations with Regard to the Tax Laws.
- To explain the various types of taxes applicable on goods , services and also to the citizens of the country.

Course Outcomes:

- This subject provides an introduction to, and overview of, fundamental concepts of income tax law.
- Employ a broad understanding of tax law
- Conduct tax law research by using research skills to interrogate primary and secondary legal materials, and analyse and synthesise complex legal information

Paper – 29

Course Name :- Company Law Course Code – LW-18-405 Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite : Concept of Firm, Partnership firm, LLP

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- To encourage the development of students' skills in legal reasoning and analysis through study of statutes, case law and regulatory practice relating to Company Law.
- To introduce students to the economic function of the company as a legal structure for business, to its advantages and disadvantages compared to other structures available such as the partnership and the limited liability partnership, and in particular to the company's limited liability.
- To explain the legal nature and significance of limited liability and the price which those using a company as a business structure are required to pay for it.
- To provide students with knowledge and appreciation of the major core topics in Company Law including the legal nature of the company as a business structure, the legal implications of separate corporate personality including limited liability, the validity of contracts made with companies, the role of the board of directors and their legal duties as directors and the legal protection of shareholders.

Course outcomes: By the end of this course it is expected that the student will be able to:

1. Explain and apply to various fact scenarios the concept of separate legal entities.

2. To explain the basic documents such as MOA and AOA required for the company.
3. To develop the ability to identify and effectively use the corporate law resources. And to develop the ability to learn company law both independently and cooperatively in a professional environment.
4. To evaluate and analyze socially reasonable corporate behavior.

Paper – 30

Course Name :- Conference

Course Code –LW 406

Credits :1

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme				No of Teaching Hours
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total	15 Hours
					25	25

Course Pre-requisite:

How to maintain decorum while being part of the Legal conference

Course Objective:

- To Improve the presentation and communication skills of the student
- It enables the students to get acquainted with various personalities of that particular field
- To update the students with the latest research in legal field before they are even published in journals, then a conference is the place to be.
- The course provides opportunities to the student in receiving feedback on an early version of their latest work

Course Outcomes: -

- When Students complete the program, students should be able to improve the presentation and communication skills
- Student will be able to understand very latest research in legal field before they are even published in journals, then a conference is the place to be.

Paper – 31

Course Name :-Book Review

Course Code –LW 407

Credits :1

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme				No of Teaching Hours
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total	15 Hours.
					25	25

Course Pre-requisite : The students should be able to read and understand the book .

Course Objective : A book review is a thorough description, critical analysis, and/or evaluation of the quality, meaning, and significance of a book, often written in relation to prior research on the topic. The objective of this course are as follows.

- To improve the writing skills of the students.
- To enhance the reading skills of the students.
- To enhance the overall development of the student.
- To improve the vocabulary of the students by inculcating the habit of reading.

Course Outcomes: -

On completion of the course the students will be able to review an article or a book. The student will be able to use better language in their conversation and writing as well.

Semester V

Paper – 32

Course Name :- The Code of civil Procedure, 1908 and the Limitation Act, 1963

Course Code – LW 501

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite :The Code of Civil Procedure plays a crucial and decisive role in the regular and efficient adjudication of civil disputes. Procedural law plays an important role in achieving justice then substantive law. Knowledge of procedural law is an essential tool for the legal practitioner as well as law students. For a successful litigation it is necessary to face all potential challenges of procedural nature. Every law student should have knowledge in respect to procedural laws.

Outcome related course learning objectives:

This course introduces the procedural rules that govern how civil litigation is conducted in the courts. The course contains an overview of the entire body of rules of civil procedure ranging from commencement of proceedings, to defining issues for trial, to enforcement of judgments. There is particular emphasis upon case management procedures adopted by courts and the various alternative dispute resolution mechanisms that are used to assist people to resolve civil disputes without recourse to a contested hearing and judgment by a court.

Course Outcomes:-

- Study the procedure and principles to be adopted in civil courts.
- To provide a litigant a fair trial in accordance with the accepted principles of natural justice.

- To provide for a fair procedure for redressal of disputes.

Paper – 33

Course Name :- Law of Evidence

Course Code – LW 18-502

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Pre requisite of the course:

Law of crimes & basics of the civil procedure code

Outcome related course learning objectives:

In every civilized legal system we can classify the laws in two categories - Substantive Law and Procedural laws. The Law of evidence is one of the most important part of the procedural law. The law of evidence plays a very important role in the effective functioning of the judicial system. The law of evidence is an indispensable part of both substantive and procedural laws. It imparts credibility to the adjudicatory process by indicating the degree of veracity to be attributed to 'facts' before the forum. This subject enables the student to appreciate the concepts and principles underlying the law of evidence and identify the recognized forms of evidence and its sources. The subject seeks to impart to the student the skills of examination and appreciation of oral and documentary evidence in order to find out the truth. The art of examination and cross examination, and the shifting nature of burden of proof are crucial topics. The concepts brought in by amendments to the law of evidence are significant parts of study in this course.

Course Outcomes: Students who has taken admission for this course will be able to

1. Analyse and define the concept and general nature of evidence, and illustrate the different types of evidence and court procedures relating to evidence.
2. Analyse the rule relating to relevance of evidence and admissibility of evidence before the court.
3. Evaluate the rules relating to dying declaration and admissibility of dying declaration
4. Determine and analyse the standard of proof and burden of proof in civil and criminal cases, and specify types of presumptions.
5. Analyse and evaluate the rules governing examination in chief, cross examination and re-examination, and establish the procedures in the conduct of a civil or criminal trial
6. Determine the rules relating to competence and compellability of witnesses in relation to case study material.

Paper – 34

Course Name :- Administrative Law

Course Code – LW 503

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite : Knowledge of Constitutional Provisions.

Outcome related course learning objectives:

Today we are living in an ‘administrative age’ where there is a rising tendency to transfer more and more powers to executives which include quasi-judicial as well as quasi-legislative which has become inevitable in modern democratic states.

Therefore, there has been a tremendous increase in powers and functions of the administrative authorities and the obvious result is full of danger of its degeneration and unwanted encroachment on human rights and liberties. Hence, there requires adequate control, safeguard through procedural fairness, judicial review and remedies to those affected by the administration. This syllabus has been prescribed with these objectives.

Course Outcomes:

1. Administrative law is mainly a judge-made law and has secured its present features through a Myriad of judicial decisions. A student got a deep knowledge of the operation and changing phenomena of these standards from a comparative angle.
2. The ever increasing number of delegated legislation in the form of rules, regulations, circulars and general orders has the characteristics of law, which though framed by administration, impose a burden on the rights of citizens.

3. Analyze the scope of review of delegated legislation and the limitations on the judicial review of administrative action, the Principles of Natural Justice also have studied in detail in this course.

Paper – 35

Course Name :- Drafting, Pleading and Conveyancing

Course Code – LW – 18 -504

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
					90+10	100

Course Prerequisite: Basics of civil Procedure and criminal Procedure and Law of Limitation

Outcome related course learning objectives:

- To acquaint the students with the basics of Drafting, Pleading & Conveyancing.
- To provide and develop practical skills in drafting and presenting documents in clear, grammatical and correct English.
- To examine the nature and value of pleadings, and to learn and draft the documents in civil and criminal proceedings.

Course Outcomes: Students who has taken admission for this course will be able to

1. Analyze and define the concept of Pleading and various rules of pleading and able to handle the client during the course of interaction.
2. Articulate the argumentation process and apply the legal drafting abilities during the appearances before Court and Tribunals
3. Recognize the way to move to the criminal justice system with aid of various complaints.
4. Identify and discuss the various forms of conveyancing deed such as sale deed, gift, mortgage etc.
5. Apply legal drafting skills and understand practical aspect of registration of such documents..

Paper – 36

Course Name :- Intellectual Property Rights Course Code – LW 505 Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite:

All Kinds of Property, An intellectual property right protects applications, ideas, information that is commercial in nature. Therefore the law for each commodity differs according to nature or type of it.

Outcome related course learning objectives:

Intellectual property law regulates the use, creation and exploitation of mental or creative labour of a person. Intellectual property affects such diverse subjects such as visual and performing arts, inventions, art, design etc. The course aims to equip students with fundamentals of Intellectual Property Rights and the related protection systems. The course will discuss the theoretical justification for Intellectual property Rights, the legal framework and the rights granted. The course will include an overview of the international regime, treaties and conventions on the subject. The course will mainly focus on important Indian legislations in the field of Intellectual Property. Further aim of the course is to introduce to students the other forms of IP such as Geographical indication, traditional knowledge, protection of Plant varieties and Integrated circuits. To give statutory expression to the creator and right of access to the public. To encourage creativity and innovation in all fields of development. To safeguard rights of creators or producers of intellectual goods and service

Course Outcomes:

- The students will be well-versed with the basic concepts of Intellectual property laws and will be familiarized with the kind of rights, remedies and licensing regime associated with each kind of intellectual property so that students can have a basic understanding of Intellectual Property laws.
- This course also aims to give an overview knowledge to the student on the practical applicability of international conventions in Indian scenarios.

Paper – 37 (Elective)

Course Name :- Banking Laws

Course Code – LW 506

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite : Concept of Banking and Co operative Banking, Negotiable Instrument Provisions

Outcome related course learning objectives :

To Understand the of Indian Banking System

To Know the functions of different types of banks.

To know the laws relating to Banking in India.

Course Outcomes:

The concepts and legal parameters including the judicial interpretation of banking law.

To learn new emerging dimensions in the banking system including e-commerce and e-banking.

To have an analysis of International Banking System in comparison with Banking system in India

Paper – 38 (Elective)

Course Name :- Insurance Laws Course Code – LW 507

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite :

Fundamentals of the Laws of Indemnity, Actionable Claims

Outcome related course learning objectives:

This Course equips students to understand the practical application of contract of indemnity incorporated as an insurance policy. This course aim to impart analytical skills and equip the students with the basic problems concerning law of insurance and the possible solutions carved out by judiciary to protect the gullible investors, consumers etc

Course Outcomes: On successful completion of the course Students Law will be able to

The students will be able to attain knowledge on development of Insurance sector in India. After studying this course the students will gain knowledge on factors of growth of insurance sector in India. The students will be able to appreciate the inevitable relationship between risk and insurance, different types of risks, essential principles as well.

Paper – 39 (Elective)

Course Name :- Legal Aid Course Code: –LW 508 Credits: 2

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme				No of Teaching Hours
Theory	Tutorial	Practical		Practical	Internal	Total	30Hours
					50	50

Course Pre-requisite:

In the endeavour to cater justice to all sections of society including poor and vulnerable sections, the provision of legal aid has been carved out in law, for providing access to justice to all.

Course Objective:

- To explain the concept of legal aid and its importance for provision of access to justice, particularly in India.
- To realize the need and significance of the Alternative Dispute Resolution system.
- To provide basic understanding about the emerging area of Online Dispute Resolution and its application in India.

Course Outcome:

It helps the student to learn the significance of legal aid in the path to achieve justice. The shortcomings of judicial system and the need for alternative dispute resolution system are also emphasised.

Semester VI

Paper-40

Course Name :- The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, Juvenile Justice Act, 2000 and Probation of Offenders Act, 1958

Course Code – LW 601

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
4			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: The procedural criminal law is necessary to bring the offender before the court and prove his guilt. While studying this subject the students are expected to know all the provisions of Indian Penal code

Course Objectives :

The students are made aware that they should have an understanding of how the Criminal Procedure Code acts as a main source of the criminal justice system.

To explain to the students about the hierarchy of criminal Courts.

The make the students aware as to how the Criminal Procedure code controls and regulates the working of the machinery set up for the investigation and trial of offence.

Course Outcomes:On completion of this course

1. The students will understand importance of criminal procedure followed by criminal courts
2. It explains procedure from arrest till trials and punishments
3. It is an important legislation which gives pPractical knowledge to students.
4. It also covers appeals revision etc
5. It explains the hierarchy of criminal courts.

Paper - 41

Course Name :- Environmental Law

Course Code – LW 602

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisites:Environmental law is a field that offers opportunities to serve and save the earth. In the wake of Industrial growth there has been a complete degradation of the environment. Students are expected to know as to what is environment and what are the factors that contribute towards environmental pollution.

Course Objectives: Rapid industrial growth, growth in population and urbanization is leading towards environmental degradation such as water pollution, air pollution, global warming, deforestation, solid waste etc. As citizens we need to take measures for curbing such degradation. So, environmental law basically deals with protection against all kinds of pollution which we need to understand. the objectives of this course will be

- To make the student aware that to live in a clean and good environment is a fundamental right as enshrined in our Constitution.
- To explain the students to preserve the gifts of nature from all kinds of pollution and create awareness amongst all citizens of the same.
- To create awareness among the students about various forms of pollution which is degrading the environment.
- The students will be sensitized to all environmental problems and suggest preventive measures for the same.

Course Outcomes: Students who has taken admission for this course will be able to

1. Analyze advanced and integrated understanding of the complex body of knowledge in the field of environmental law
2. Develop the capacity to identify new law and apply existing law in the rapidly evolving legal context for environmental law
3. Understand in depth knowledge of the specialist area of environmental law and associated disciplinary areas
4. Determine and analyse the different causes of pollution and legal remedies to control it on national level.
5. Students will be made aware of judicial precedents and international obligations for protection of the environment.
6. Analyse and evaluate laws relating to environmental aspect on a national level and its comparison with other countries.

Paper - 42

Course Name :- Professional Ethics, Bar Bench Relations and Accountancy for Lawyers

Course Code – LW /18-603

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: To work as any professional there are certain rules and ethics of that particular profession to be followed. Judiciary being an important organ of governance the rules and ethics related to such professions are very important to be followed. Students seeking to complete this course should have a fair idea as to how the profession of law operates and what are the various career options available to law students.

Course Objectives: Every profession has Rules of Ethics.” This Course is to make the students familiar with and understand the ethical Rules that will guide them and understand the duties, responsibilities to which they are morally and legally bound to follow as a part of their legal profession. The objectives of this course are

- To acquaint the students with importance of ethics in legal profession.
- To provide basic understanding and make them familiar with the ethical Rules which will guide them in their legal profession.
- To understand and critically analyze the rationales behind the ethical Rules.
- To develop the ability to efficiently identify ethical issues and dilemmas in realistic scenarios and articulate resolutions to those issues and dilemmas.

Course Outcomes: - Students completing the course of ‘Professional Ethics, Bar Bench Relations & Accountancy for Lawyers’ will be able to:

1. To understand and apply the professional ethics and ethical standard of the legal profession
2. To know and evaluate the key themes in professional ethics, in order to give them an insight into moral decision making in the legal profession.
3. The course will help the students to know the powers vested with Bar Councils, provisions dealing with Regulation of Legal Education, Legal Profession and issues relating to Professional Misconduct and Contempt Proceeding including the provisions under the Advocate's Act 1961.
4. To students will know as to how should lawyers aim to win at all costs, and how should they balance duties to their client, to the Courts, to justice in the abstract, and to themselves.

Paper - 43

Course Name :- Land Laws

Course Code – LW 604

Credits :4

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
			60		40	100

Course Prerequisite: Land law is the form of law that deals with the rights to use, alienate, or exclude others from land. To have a better understanding in the subject students should have a brief idea of what are the things that constitute land, what are the uses of land and also the meaning of the terms like property, acquisition, tenancy etc.

Course Objectives:

The principal aim is to acquaint students with the fundamental proprietary interests and to teach students how to apply the relevant laws and concepts to practical situations where such interests are in dispute. Meaning and purposes of the concept of property; and personal property; possession, the nature and type of proprietary interests; creation and enforceability of legal and equitable interests in land; relevant statutory schemes of registration. To make the students understand the Constitutional perspectives relating to this subject.

Course Outcomes: - Students graduating with Land Laws will be able to:

1. Understand and describe legislative power to make laws relating to land and land ceiling is in the state list.
2. Different states have enacted their own laws on this subject and the application of these laws is varied from state to state.
3. The Constitutional perspectives relating to this subject have to be taught as an essential part of this course.
4. Problem solving of complex issues in the land related matters and law enforcement, government bindings etc.

5. Analyse, evaluate and synthesise information from a wide variety of sources and experiences to answer complex legal questions in a principled manner.

Paper - 44

Course Name :- Practical Training and Moot Courts

Course Code – LW 605

Credits :4

Teaching			Examination Scheme
Scheme/hrs per week
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total
					90+10	100

Course Prerequisite: professional as it is associated with the study of law. the prerequisite to this course would be that the students should be well versed with the Substantive Laws relating to the matter in their hands and Procedural Laws to actively participate in the course.

Course Objectives: Moot court helps to formulate arguments and expressing them in front of judges, essential skills for any lawyer.

Moot court is a great place to hone public speaking skills of the students.

Mooting would help students to gain immense pPractical knowledge about various fields of law and which in a way also highlights the research skills of the students.

In personal level participating in moot court provide a unique bonding experience to the students.

It is an opportunity for a law student to learn and perform how the court room actually works.

Mooting helps in the overall development of an student as a good and proficient lawyer.

Course outcome :- The society needs efficient lawyers, mainly judges and advocates so that the society can benefit at large due to the pendency of the cases in India. On Completion of this course the student will be able to:

Understand the procedure adopted in the Courts.

Understand how to prepare a suit and how to file the same

Know the Practical approach of the law course

Get the Practical training to have a better career opportunity.

Paper - 45

Course Name :- Conference

Course Code – LW 606

Credits :2

Teaching Scheme/hrs per week			Examination Scheme				No of Teaching Hours
Theory	Tutorial	Practical	Theory	Practical	Internal	Total	30 Hours.
					50	50

Course Pre-requisite:

- How to maintain the decorum while being part of a Legal conference

Course Objective:

- To Improve the presentation and communication skills of the student
- It enables the students to get acquainted with various personalities of that particular field
- To update the students with the latest research in legal field before they are even published in journals, then a conference is the place to be.
- The course provides opportunities to the student in receiving feedback on an early version of their latest work

Course Outcomes: -

- When Students complete the program, students should be able to improve the presentation and communication skills
- Student will be able to understand very latest research in legal field before they are even published in journals, then a conference is the place to be.