

Institute of Nursing Education and Research

Innovative Teaching Learning Process-

1. Simulation techniques- students will learn how to gain skills in actual situation in clinical field.
2. Computer assisted Training to the students for IEC(Information, Education and Communication)
3. Anecdotal record of the patients at the bedside which will help to study patient's case.
4. Skilled base learning-demonstrations at the bedside and orientation training regarding advanced technology and equipments is given to the students so that students will learn and perform actual skills on patients.
5. Procedure manual for student community health nursing and foundations of nursing.
6. Problem solving approach and evidence based practice techniques learning,
7. Child to child programme in the community
8. Self Instruction module for Midwives
9. B.C.L.S. (Basic Critical Life Support and A.C.L.S. (Advance Critical Life Support) training arranged for students to gain skills regarding emergency services.
10. Japanese language and English classes are arranged for the students since there are global opportunities.
11. Adopted village near Sinhgad Paytha, Atkarwadi for conducting health activities which we rendering in community